From Bugis Seashores to Toraja Highlands

South Sulawesi occupies the southwestern arm of the spider-shaped island of Sulawesi, once known as Celebes. The diversity of its local cultures and spectacular landscapes is an endless source of new discoveries

South Sulawesi is a home of several ethnic groups, including notably Bugis in the southern lowlands and Toraja in the highlands. Toraja culture is famous for the amazing architecture of traditional houses and its vibrant funeral ceremonies. Buginese people are formidable shipbuilders and seamen. Long before colonial times, Buginese and phinisi boats were engaged in the legendary spice trade.

Experience authentic village life. The hospitality of the communities will make your stay a pleasant and memorable one

Visitors will be delighted by the stunning scenery of numerous karstic outcrops as attractive as stone forests. With an area of about 400 sq.km, the Maros karsts are a potential candidate for inclusion in the UNESCO World Heritage list.

The sea gardens of Takabonerate National Park, the third largest coral atoll in the world which lies southwest of Selayar Island, offer a wonderful introduction to the under marine world.

Day-01 : Denpasar Bali - Pangkajene - Pandang Lau - Salemo - Kupa

Upon arrival at Hasanuddin airport of Makassar from Denpasar, you will be welcomed and transferred directly to Pangkajene (32 kms, 50 minutes drive). At Kalibone, explore the Soreang River on a motorized canoe, watch different kinds of birds, flying-foxes and iguanas. Discover the mangrove forest along the river-bank, the fishermen activities, and the crabs fisheries. Stop in the village of Pandang

Lau to learn the daily activities of the villagers who make fishing-nets and construct fishing boats, or prepare the food for the family. Lunch is provided on board. Then you continue to the Salemo Fishermen Island. Return to Pangkajene in the afternoon and transport to Kupa Village. Enjoy the beautiful sunset and local sea-food specialties. Overnight at Kupa Beach Home Stay. (L,D)

Day-02 : Kupa - Parepare - Enrekang - Mengkendek Kandora Toraja

Leaving the coast at Kupa, you go up-to the Toraja highlands. At Enrekang, stop for an hour boat trip along Sadan River. Enjoy local specialties served at Bambapuang facing a locally famous erotic mountain. Entering the Torajan region, stop at Potok Tengan where, according to the legend, landed the boat of the Torajan ancestors descending from heaven to Kandora Mountain. After lunch, spend the afternoon at the lodge balcony or walk around to enjoy the magnificent views and sunset. Dinner is served. Stay at Kandora Lodge. (B,L,D)

Day 03 : Mengkendek Kandora - Karuaya/Sangalla
